DID WEST YORKSHIRE POLICE REFUSE TO ISSUE A PHOTOGRAPH OF THIS BAIL-JUMPING CONVICTED CHILD-RAPIST UNTIL THEY KNEW HE HAD FLED TO PAKISTAN?

Mohammed Nawaz of Bradford failed to appear in court on October 14th 2010 for the final day of his trial for rape and sexual assault of girls aged between 11 and 14. Nawaz was convicted in his absence.

Police made an appeal for anyone knowing of his whereabouts to come forward yet refused to issue a photograph of this sick individual and gave no valid reason for this unprecedented decision.

A week later, when the police discovered he had flown from Gatwick Airport to Pakistan, they finally decided to issue the above photograph.

What use was that to anyone? No wonder he managed to flee the country.

We believe there are certain questions that need to be answered by the so-called 'Justice System' regarding this case:

- Why was Nawaz not remanded in custody after being charged with these very serious crimes?
- Why was Nawaz's passport not seized after he was given bail?
- A wealthy businessman like Nawaz would be able to live very comfortably in a country like Pakistan, have his bank accounts been frozen and his assets in the UK seized?
- What are the police doing in order to extradite Nawaz from Pakistan?
- Was the actual reason for not releasing a photograph of Nawaz in order to not compromise 'community relations' in Bradford?
